Lego Star Wars Millennium Falcon

This is the Lego Star Wars Episode 111 Millennium Falcon and is greatly improved on the first two versions, the manufacturers rate this for 9 years and older and is quite tricky to build but worth it when you have the finished project,

Some parts do detach fairly easily if played with but these can easily be fixed more securely, No Star Wars collection is complete without this amazing 985-piece model.

A challenging build, this new model features removable triangular pieces and a removable top, so you can see the action inside the Millennium Falcon. Lower the starboard hatch lid and pull out the ramp to board your Star Wars mini-figures.

There's even an escape pod on the port hatch where the mini-figures can bolt if there's a sign of danger. To fend off evil intruders, the movable gun turret will come in handy. It includes Chewbacca, c-3po, Snowtrooper, new Hoth Han solo and princess leia mini figures.

The Lego Star Wars Millennium Falcon Measures 16.5"L x 12.5"W x 4.5"H.

the building process, which was pretty sophisticated for this level of Lego set and the model has a lot more parts than the original
