Elmo has been a favorite for children over the past few years and is back for 2011 with Lets Rock Elmo, this Elmo comes complete with his very own set of drums a microphone and a tambourine, there are other accessories available such as a guitar and keyboard but the basic set should be enough to keep any toddler occupied,

Choose which instrument you want LET'S ROCK Elmo to play and he "magically" recognizes which one you give him. Kids can also play along on Elmo's instruments--they're perfectly sized for little hands to beat on the drums, shake the tambourine or pretend to sing into the microphone. Play along while Elmo sings his songs! He sings "Elmo's gonna rock. YEAH!" in his Elmo Likes to Rock and Roll song! He also sings five other songs: What Elmo Likes About You, It Takes Two, Elmo's World, Rock 'n Roll Alphabet Song, and Sing Out!

Elmo interacts with other LET'S ROCK! Instruments (sold separately), only one at a time. Kids can choose from the LET'S ROCK Elmo GUITAR, COOKIE MONSTER KEYBOARD, or GROVER MICROPHONE. Elmo plays the drums when you put his drums in front of him near his feet. Your child will have all the fun while playing along as Elmo plays and sings. And each time Elmo gets an instrument, he politely says "Thank you!"
